

A

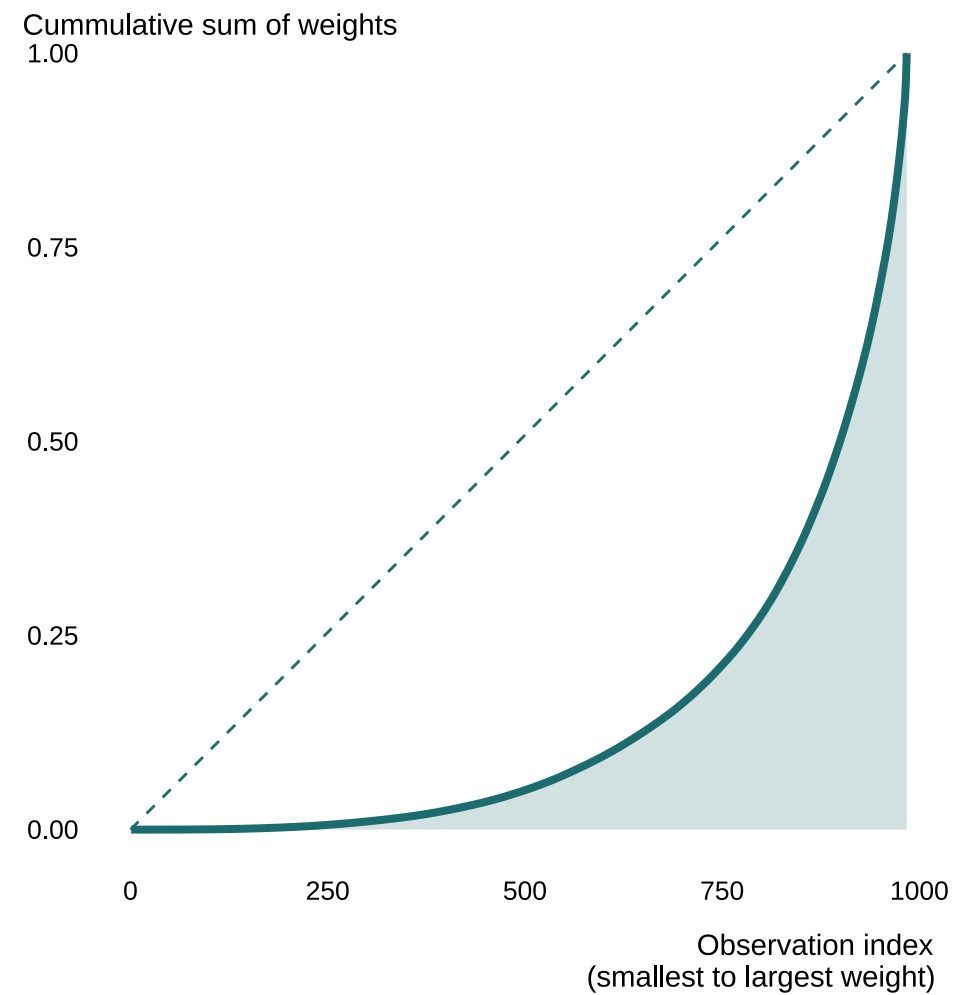

Distribution of Identifying Variation Weights

B

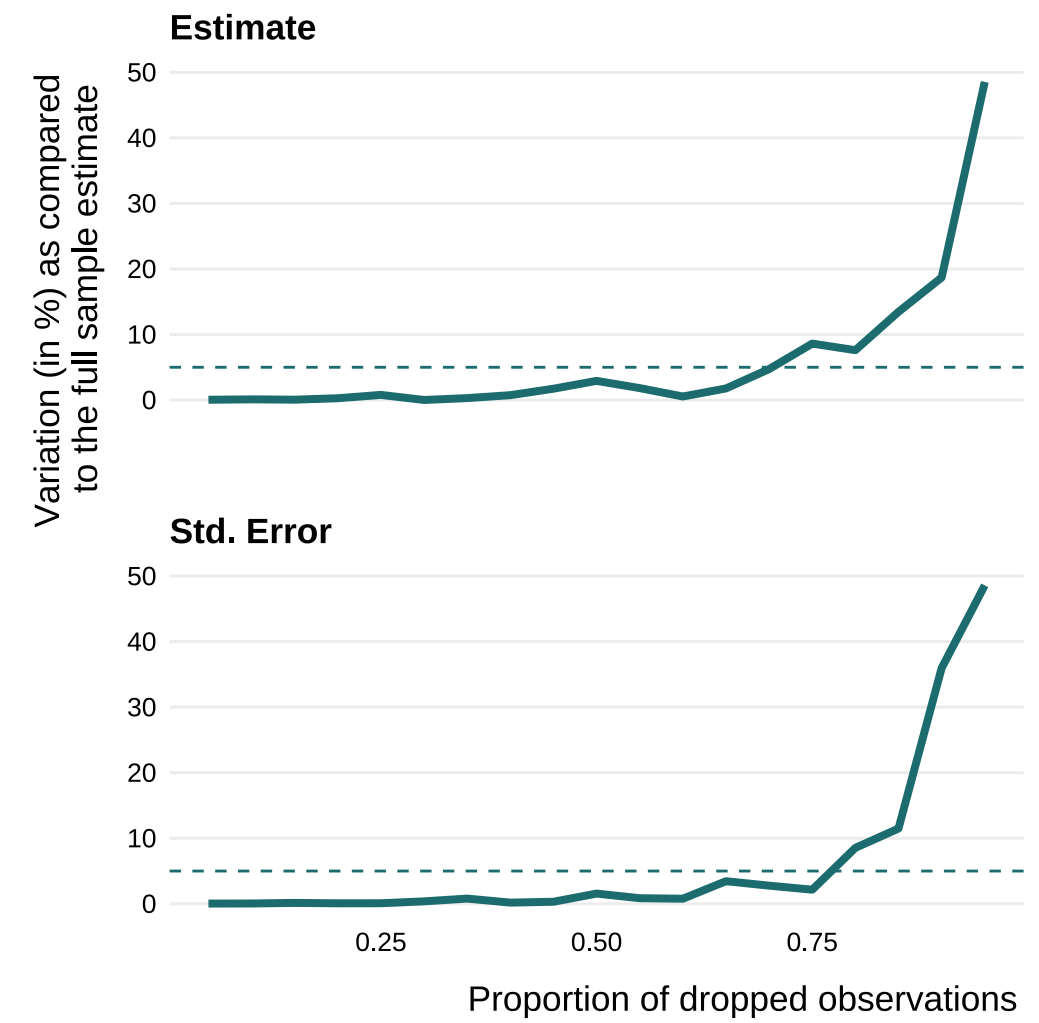

Cumulative distribution of weights

24.8% of the observations (244 obs.) account for 80% of the weights

C

Impact of dropping low-weight observations

D

Set of observations contributing to identification

Removing observations outside the "effective sample" would change the point estimate and s.e. by less than 5%

